We are still following up our seminars in Feb. 2015, Sept. 2016 on Human Trafficking- trying to prevent this - and also on our help to victims in Sept. 2015. We discovered that social workers helping victims of Human Trafficking did not have money to buy things these victims needed. We "begged" some: hairdressers, shops, skin and foot-therapists and Club members for something. Many contributed and we bought the rest. We handed out these bags on the 25.Nov. and 08.Dec.in 2016 and 20.March, 2017.

"Women's Voices": Do you have a nice story or quote from a woman or girl who directly benefitted from this project? If yes, please share it with us in the space below:

The social workers told us that handing out our gifts made it easier for them to make contact and interview the girls/potential victims of Human Trafficking. The girls were surprised over the fact that other women were interested in their lives and situation. This made them happy and grateful.
